Dear Muriel:

Linda and I were so happy to talk with you and Carl on the phone! The feeling of closeness was very real!

As we agreed on the phone, I am returning the carbon copy of your Biography, and hope very much that you will not be offended by the red marks on it. Actually, both Tom Leland and I like your Biography exactly as it is with the one exception I mentioned when we were talking, that you may want to omit some of the references to other members of the Clinic group here, or condense them in some way. However, even in this regard please feel free to do this exactly as you want and we shall plan to publish it in the Tenderness issue (due to be out in March).

The printer phoned me today to say that he is now completing the printing of the "Hate and Aggression" issue. This means that he will be ready for the Tenderness issue in a week or 10 days, but I think we can stretch it for a little longer than that if necessary.

Thank you again for the difficult "labor of love" which you undertook with this Biography.

Affectionately,

P.S. We are keeping the original copy of your Biography exactly as you had it, without any change whatsoever, in case you should decide to leave it like that.
